SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL NEWS

Today is the 5th Sunday in May. The Saint Monica Chapter of the Saint Vincent de Paul Society would greatly appreciate your kind donations to help them with their work helping the poor. This weekend after the Masses, as you exit the church, a collection will be taken by our SVDP volunteers, so please be generous. The last collection taken in March was a little over $1000.00. Your donations helped the following organizations: $200 was given to the Vincentian Help Desk; $200 was given to the Riley Center for Battered Women; $150 was donated to Saint Boniface to help the homeless and the poor and $150 was used to buy food to make sandwiches for the poor. Thank you!

GESTURE OF RESPECT

A Reminder

The Vatican has asked all parishes in the world to make a change in how we receive Holy Communion. All communicants are asked to bow before the Host and the Chalice. This gesture of respect for the Holy Sacrament is meant to express our belief in Christ's true presence in the Eucharist.
